BORO BYELINES

Last week Ayresome Park was the venue for the annual international game between England and Scotland Fire Services. Despite the appalling weather conditions both teams turned in a good display with England worthy 5-1 winners over the auld enemy.

Boro staggered the football world when they paid the first £1000 transfer fee to Sunderland for Alf Common in 1905. The next sensation was in 1928 when the £10,000 barrier was reached with the transfer of David Jack from Bolton Wanderers – our visitors today – to Arsenal.

David Jack, known as the Prince of Inside-forwards, was an England star in his day and one of the greats. He was manager of Middlesbrough from 1944 to 1952. His son is a football journalist in Australia, whom the Boro players met on their last world tour.

We often hear of "super subs" but the record of "super loaner" must be held by David Felgate who, up to the end of season 1979/80, had played in no fewer than 61 Football League games without appearing once for Bolton Wanderers, who held his playing contract! David played "on loan" for Rochdale, Bradford City, Crewe and Lincoln, who finally signed him.

Physio Jimmy Headrige had a year in the United Arab Emirates after leaving Ayresome Park, then had a spell with today's visitors, Bolton. He moved on to Manchester United, where his sudden death shocked the football world.

Walter Rowley managed Bolton immediately after the war, later taking over at Ayresome Park. Bolton were managed, in later years, by former Boro, Newcastle and Sunderland skipper Stan Anderson, who managed Boro for a spell, at the end of which Harold Shepherdson held the reins very capably before Jack Charlton took over here.

Among the spectators at our last home game was former Boro front runner Dave Hodgson, injured Dave was delighted to see the end of our run of three home defeats in a row.

Billy Askew, ex-Boro player now with Hull, was brought down by Swindon winger Howard Pritchard midway through the first half of their game recently. Pritchard, booked for the offence, again tripped Billy early in the second half and went for an early bath.

We were delighted to see that Mike Angus, on loan from us to Scunthorpe United, scored the winner for them at Peterborough last Saturday to keep United third in the Fourth Division.

Talks To You

From a playing point of view, this club finds itself in a very difficult position today – and that, of course, is allied to a financial crisis. It is obvious we have to endeavour to get out of our present predicament with the players that we have got, because we just can't afford to splash out in the transfer market.

I have been with the team for the last three games and I must confess I have felt that we could, nay should, have won them all. But we didn't. And in the game we lost, the first-leg Milk Cuptie at Burnley we played, so I am told, the best we have played all season. I know we have introduced young players into the side prematurely, due to circumstances, but I must emphasise that in no way have these youngsters let the side down. In fact the performance of such lads as Tony Mowbray, Darren Wood and Stephen Bell, for instance, have been most encouraging. Certain players have been asked to operate out of position in an effort to plug the gaps so at the moment we have, to my mind, an unbalanced look about us.

I have been just a little bit disappointed in one or two of the more experienced players because they are the people, at the end of the day, on whom we have to rely – and I will concentrate my efforts to get them to accept more responsibility on the field. I know it is not an easy job and obviously the new manager, whoever he might be, could see things in a different light from myself – so it is important, with time slipping away, for that new man to be appointed as swiftly as possible, so he can get down to the job of getting to grips with a difficult task.

Having said that, I am pleased with the attitude of the players. They are not being defeatist, although life must be difficult for them. Nobody likes to be in the position they find themselves in. Any mistake on the field of play seems to be very costly. It is easy for Cyril Knowles or myself to tell them to go out and relax and enjoy the game. In the present circumstances, I would think they'd find that almost an impossibility. Today, we are two players short because of suspension – Ray Hankin and Mick Kennedy. I am not going into the whys and wherefores of their suspensions; the sad fact is that they are suspended and we have to do without them.

On the plus side, Irving Natrass played his first game for six months last Saturday and came through satisfactorily. Some of our supporters have become a wee bit cynical about Irving's contribution to Middlesbrough Football Club since his arrival from Newcastle United, but it was evident when I spoke to him the other day that he is conscious of the fact that he owes you, the fans, and the club something and he is determined to win your approval. I know that Natrass is a good player and I feel the team will rely a lot on his influence in the vital weeks ahead.

Today, Bolton Wanderers are our visitors. I have seen them play a couple of times and they have played quite well. They have gathered a lot of experience in their ranks and are now managed by the former Hartlepool and Nottingham Forest favourite John McGovern, who served his apprenticeship under Brian Clough. Bolton are obviously looking to stabilise their position in the League and they will prove to be very difficult to overcome here today. Still, I must look to us to clinch that first victory of the season. It has been so near, and yet so far away.

I was a bit dispirited after the game at Shrewsbury last Saturday that we had not collected full points instead of sharing the spoils in a 2-2 draw. At the same time, and to be realistic, I suppose that anything we get away from home is useful. It's a question of being thankful for small mercies.

I should like to thank the two busloads of supporters who travelled to Gay Meadow, Shrewsbury. They gave our players maximum encouragement throughout the game. Even when we were a goal down, they were not afraid to shout for their favourite team. As I said to our players, and as I feel so strongly, fans like this are the people who will help us win matches and climb to a respectable position in the League table. Thank you, again, for your continued support.

A HELPING HAND FROM RAY

Our mascot for the last home game, against Oldham Athletic, had a will of his own – and a hat of his own to go with it.

Six-year-old Geoffrey Snaith, of Middlesbrough, refused to take off his Boro bowler hat at any time during his big day, so we bowed to the inevitable and allowed him to keep it on. From start to finish of the most exciting day in his young life.

Before the game he was taken into the treatment room to obtain his kit – and immediately thought he had been taken into hospital. Physio Lew Clayton and striker Ray Hankin reassured him and promised that mascots never got injured!

Those of you who saw the laddie lead the team on to the field will remember him as very small – so it is rather strange that his dad is taller even than Hankin. Our picture shows Ray giving Geoffrey a helping hand with the boots the youngster likes on his feet at all times. Just like the bowler....

Commercial Manager Duncan Gibson tells us there has been an excellent response to his appeal for mascots, but urges mums and dads to keep them coming in and so make sure of a day out to remember for their lad. We like the age limit to be between six and ten.

LAW 4: PLAYERS' EQUIPMENT

A player shall not wear anything which is dangerous to another player. Footwear (boots or shoes) must conform to the following standard:

(a) Bars shall be made of leather or rubber and shall be transverse and flat, not less than half an inch in width and shall extend the total width of the sole and be rounded at the corners.

(b) Studs which are independently mounted on the sole and are replaceable shall be made of leather, rubber, aluminium, plastic or similar material and shall be solid. With the exception of that part of the stud forming the base, which shall not protrude from the sole more than one quarter of an inch, studs shall be rounded in plan and not less than half an inch in diameter. Where studs are tapered, the minimum diameter of any section of the stud must not be less than half an inch. Where metal seating for the screw type is used, this seating must be embedded in the sole of the footwear and any attachment screw shall be part of the stud.

Other than the metal seating for the screw types of stud, no metal plates, even though covered with leather or rubber shall be worn, neither studs which are threaded to allow them to be screwed on to a base that is fixed by nails or otherwise to the soles of footwear, nor studs which, apart from the base, have any form of protruding edge rim, or relief marking, or ornament, should be allowed.

(c) Studs which are moulded as an integral part of the sole and are now replaceable shall be made of rubber, plastic polyurethane or similar soft materials. Provided there are no fewer than ten studs on the sole, they shall have a maximum diameter of three-eighths of an inch (10mm). Additional supporting material to stabilise studs of soft materials, and ridges which shall not protrude more than 5mm from the sole and moulded to strengthen it, shall be permitted provided that they are in no way dangerous to other players. In all other respects they shall conform to the general requirements of this law.

Lindy started it all

The "Black Magic" revolution brought about by England's new soccer supremo, Bobby Robson, with no fewer than six coloured footballers set for national honours (most of them West Indians) has not gone unnoticed on Teesside — and with good reason.

For it was in Boro's colours that the first-ever West Indian to become a First Division football star operated in the fifties — Lloyd Lindberg Delapenha, the flying Jamaican, who started his career with Portsmouth, carried it on at Ayresome Park and later took over a top job in charge of sport on the Jamaican Broadcasting Corporation.

Lindy, as he was called, played in the same team as the immortal Wilf Mannion but it was when Billy Day emerged as an exciting young winger of tremendous potential that Delapenha became really worried!

Teesside lad Day was so talented that Lindy said: "It's no good me trying to keep the No. 7 shirt. I might as well switch to inside-forward. This boy is just too good". A remarkable tribute, but Lindy need not really have been so concerned; he was a gifted footballer in his own right, and could play anywhere in attack.

He moved across to outside-left for a spell, and with Billy on the other wing, comedian Astor, coloured like Lindy, used to shout: Come on the two wingers, Night and Day!". Delapenha laughed hugely at the joke, but was less than happy with the verbal abuse he had to take from some opposition players, who needled him about his colour simply and solely to make him lose his rag and so became that much less effective. They succeeded too many times and I took Lindy to task more than once.

Lindy, from Kingston, packed one of the most fierce shots I have ever known in the game. Two of his rockets, in a Cup replay at Derby, almost broke the back of the net. He always took the penalties, and didn't bother much about aiming. He just hit the ball as hard as he could. That really was hard, so hard that most goalkeepers counted themselves lucky if they were able to keep out of the way of the ball!

Lindy called in to Ayresome Park a few years ago, on a visit to this country. He told me his wife (a Middlesbrough girl) and family were fine — and that he would never ever forget his great days at Ayresome Park. Photo by courtesy of the Middlesbrough Evening Gazette.

Neil Berry

(Defender) International Youth honours with Scotland launched Neil into what promises to be a first class career. His League debut came in March at Cambridge where he played in midfield.

Wayne Foster

(Striker) A former local schoolboy, Foster came on to the Wanderers' scene last season and commanded a regular place in the attack. Recognised at representative level. Foster got his first England Youth cap in Scotland in a European Championship qualifier.

Mike Bennett

(Defender) A member of the successful England Youth Squad which won the 1980 European Youth Championships in East Germany, Mick is quickly establishing himself as one of the most promising defenders in the game. Has played at full back and midfield. Bolton born, he joined the Wanderers as a schoolboy.

Ian Moores

(Forward) Joined Wanderers in the summer on a free transfer after 4 seasons at Orient. The 6ft.2ins. blonde striker made his name with Stoke when he joined as a teenager, and Spurs, where he enjoyed a successful two years.

Tony Henry

(Full Back/Midfield) Signed for £125,000 from Manchester City. Tony was one of the unsung heroes of Manchester City's revival last season, he also came on as substitute in Manchester City's F.A. Cup Final appearance in 1981. Versatile player who is bound to be a useful aquisition to the Club.

David Hoggan

(Midfield) Joined Bolton from Tynecastle Boys Club, Edinburgh as an apprentice in November 1977 and signed full professional forms in August 1979. Made his League debut in the First Division at Bristol City in April 1980. Won International recognition with the Scottish Under-21's Squad.

Jim McDonagh

(Goalkeeper) In his second spell with Bolton. Jim Rejoined the Wanderers during the summer of 1981 from Everton after a season at Goodison Park. The former Rotherham Keeper was a member of Bolton's Second Division Championship Winning Side in 1978. Republic of Ireland International.

Gerry McElhinney

(Defender) Signed from Distillery at the beginning of the 80/81 season, a former Gaelic footballer and amateur boxer, who made his debut for the Wanderers soon after signing. An aggressive, enthusiastic defender who just failed to make the Northern Ireland World Cup squad.

Paul Jones

(Defender) Re-signed for Wanderers within weeks of being released on a free transfer during the summer. Paul is a quick tackling defender who has been a member of the Under-23 and full England squads. He is a commanding player in the air as well as on the ground and has a habit of scoring vital goals. Can also play at full back and is Wanderers longest serving player.

Peter Reid

(Midfield) Joined Bolton from school on Merseyside. Was a regular member of the England Under-21 side which he also skippered. A very talented player who had the misfortune to sustain a number of serious injuries which have limited his senior appearances over the past four seasons.

Mike Doyle

(Defender) Veteran former Manchester City and England defender, joined the Wanderers in January from Stoke City for a "nominal fee". Doyle made a dramatic start to his Bolton days conceding an own goal on his debut and being sent off in his second game, but he brought a steady influence to the Bolton line-up and his composure has been a tremendous asset.

Simon Farnworth

(Goalkeeper) Simon has shown enough talent and composure in his formative years to persuade the Wanderers to appoint an understudy to Jim McDonagh and release the highly experienced Dennis Peacock who returned to Doncaster.

Chris Thompson

(Striker/Midfield) A speedy attacker with plenty of skill. Chris joined the Wanderers from school. He became an apprentice and then went on to sign full Professional forms in July 1977. Has represented England at Youth level. He was the Club's leading scorer last season.

Jeff Chandler

(Forward) A livewire winger with an abundance of skill and control. Jeff cost Wanderers a modest £40,000 when he signed from Leeds United in October 1981. The Hammersmith born lad, who began his League career with Blackpool has won International recognition with the Republic of Ireland.

Ray Deakin

(Defender) A left full back who can also play in midfield, Ray joined the Wanderers in the summer on a free transfer from Port Vale. Began his career with Everton.

Vernon Allatt

(Striker) Joined Bolton in the summer on a trial basis after being freed by Halifax.

John McGovern

(Midfield) Taking his first steps into management, John was appointed Wanderers Player/Manager in June. One of the games most respected players, he has won League Championship honours with Derby County and Nottingham Forest - whom he also led as captain to two Football League Cup successes.

Steve Whitworth

(Defender) Joined Bolton for a bargain £25,000 from Sunderland in October 1981. A stylish, experienced full back with well over 400 League appearances behind him. Whitworth earned seven England caps in his Leicester City days.

ELUSIVE HOME POINT

OUR JUNIORS PIP JACK'S HOPEFULS

Our youth coach, Micky Burns, is delighted with the overall performance of the Junior side, which has got off to such a great start in the Northern Intermediate league competition – as the adjoining league table shows. In the challenge cup, the lads had an excellent victory over Jack Charlton's Sheffield Wednesday Juniors at Hillsborough and are now in the quarter-finals, where their opponents will be the winners of the Rotherham United v Hartlepool United tie.

Cliff Recalls

by CLIFF MITCHELL

Long after the days of Bolton Wanderers' Nat Lofthouse and Boro's Wilf Mannion, we saw some exciting matches between these two clubs. The Wanderers and the Teessiders were proud First Division forces in the years after the war; both suffered relegation – and now both are in the middle of a revival fight. Those fights are far from easy, as everyone in the game will tell you.

It was in the Second Division that Bolton Wanderers, our visitors today, met Middlesbrough on October 11th 1969 – just 13 years ago – at Ayresome Park and a crowd of 14,020 (considered very disappointing at the time) enjoyed a convincing and impressive 4-0 triumph by their favourites. The tremendously popular John Hickton and the much-travelled Scot, Hughie McIlmoyle, each scored two goals and Wanderers' England international goalkeeper Eddie Hopkinson had to make some fine saves.

Boro, in fact took the lead in the first minute. Just 45 seconds had ticked by when Wanderers' right-half Williams made what should have been a decisive clearance from the first attack of the game. Unfortunately for the visitors, their centre-half, former Sunderland idol Charlie Hurley, completely lost control when he went for the ball and Hickton, following up, gained possession, cleverly drew the goalkeeper and neatly slid the ball into the empty net.

Another goal looked certain when Derrick Downing centred, McIlmoyle – playing only his third game for Boro following his £55,000 transfer from Carlisle United – beat the opposition in the air and headed towards the far post. Eric McMordie had raced up in anticipation, but the little Irishman just failed to get his foot to the ball for what would have been an open goal. Bolton held out in the face of constant pressure until the 41st minute, when a picture goal had the crowd roaring its approval – and its appreciation of the new centre-forward.

McMordie retrieved a ball that looked certain to go out of play and turned it back. His big off-the-field chum, Gordon Jones, was backing up, as usual, and he crossed to the far post for McIlmoyle to leave the opposition helpless as he climbed to head down into the far corner of the net. Big Mac's brilliance in the air made him one of the most dangerous front men in the game. He scored a lot of goals with his head, and he "made" a lot more for team-mates.

Bolton's goal continued to be under siege after the interval. Downing and Bill Gates were within a whisker of scoring before the inevitable happened and Boro surged into a three-goal lead. A corner was only half cleared and Gates returned the ball to the goalmouth, where Hickton hit it on the drop to leave Hopkinson helpless. It was yet another extremely well-taken goal and the crowd roared. Their team could well have been in a much bigger lead, but three of the best was fair enough. And there was another to come, just five minutes later.

Again it was the surrender of a corner that proved disastrous to Bolton. This time, the flag kick was only cleared out to Alec Smith and the right-back centred for McIlmoyle to send another fierce header raging into the back of the net. Hopkinson continued to make save after gallant save and Boro had to be content with a 4-0 win. By contrast, Willie Whigham had little to do. The Boro goalkeeper had been recalled to the first team for the first time that season, having played all his football in the reserves following a wages dispute. The teams that day were:

BOLTON: Hopkinson; Ritson, Hallows; Williams, Hurley, Marsh; Wahrton, Byrom, Manning, Redfern, Taylor. Sub: Hume.

by DUNCAN GIBSON.

Now that the prelims have been successfully completed the Evening Gazette/Cleveland Schools Penalty Competition returns to Ayresome Park. From now until the last match of the season teams from Cleveland schools will battle out in fair weather and in foul for a place in the Final. The start of the competition gives us an opportunity to thank all the lads who will take part and the teachers who give their time and energy to make this popular competition such an attraction on match days. Give the boys your support and make it an afternoon to remember....

Hennessy Cognac Man of the Match

Despite a slow start votes came tumbling in for the very first competition to find the Man of the Match for the new season. Remember voting cards can be obtained from the Club shop, Boro Promotions Office and the main office. The winner will have lunch with the player of his/her choice and sample the delights of Hennessy Cognac. The winner for September will be announced in the next Programme.

John Craggs Testimonial Fund

The match due to John Craggs will take place at Ayresome Park on Tuesday 16th November at 7.30 p.m. The teams will represent the Boro Past and Boro Present. John tells me that this will be a night to remember with a host of old favourites (and some not so old). So book the date in your diary. Admission Seats £2 each with ground admission at £1. Children and O.A.P. will be admitted for 50p.

Lottery/Bingo Tickets

People keep asking where they can buy our popular bingo and lottery tickets available each week with thousands of prizes. As well as our usual outlets, tickets can now be bought at Asda Supermarket Portrack Lane. Fine Fare Middlesbrough and Fine Fare Redcar and from our very own kiosk in the precinct outside Boots. The tickets are on sale at all branches of Fourboys. Next time you are in town have a go...it could be your lucky day.

WITH THE JUNIORS AND RESERVES

Northern Intermediate League

Another good away victory for the Juniors at Grimsby last Saturday. Although Micky Burns did not go really overboard on the teams performance, he was pleased that Wayne Earnshaw, Tony Young, Philip Lloyd, Gary Gill, Damion McKinley and Mark Foster did enough to see the lads through to victory. Michael Condon and John McMahon score the vital goals in a 2-1 scoreline.

The youngsters are again unbeaten and have won every game to date.

Central League

The youngsters are finding life very difficult in the Central League and to date they have lost all their 3 games.

I suspected that this would happen especially against the more experienced sides. The game against Nottingham Forest was a classic example. They included no fewer than 3 Internationals in their line up: Colin Todd, John Robertson and Peter Ward. They carried far too many big guns for us, at least the boys are having to gain their experience the hard way. In the end it may do them a lot of good. After all they appear to carry all before them in the Northern Intermediate League so playing against better opposition will make them realise the difference in quality and helps them develop into better players.
